FOREWORD

For you, the Class of 1936, this handbook is published, with the hope that it may help you in becoming adjusted to university life. You will find that, although life here is not radically different from that to which you have been accustomed, it will take some time to become adjusted so that you can feel at home in your new environment. The purpose of this book is to provide a convenient reference containing some of the fundamental features of Maryland life. It is your guide to the life of the campus.

It is, however, only a guide. It will, we hope, lead you along the shortest way to familiarity with Maryland, but much will depend on your curiosity and observation. Probably nothing will hinder your observation, and you should satisfy your curiosity by investigation or questioning. The M. C. A. wants to help you, and the students and faculty will be glad to help if you ask for their aid.

In this handbook you will find a brief sketch of the work of the M. C. A., University regulations affecting student life, the constitutions of the four bodies controlling most of the phases of student activity, lists of organizations and their members, athletic records and related information, a map of the campus, and advertisements of business firms who can supply most of your needs during the school year. Since the space in this book is limited, we have tried to choose the information which you will find most valuable. If we have selected it well, our efforts will be rewarded by its usefulness to you.

DEDICATION

In appreciation of her deep interest in the work of the Christian Association, her invaluable assistance in many phases of its program, and her whole-hearted devotion to the welfare of the students of Maryland, this, the 1932-33 "M" Book, is dedicated to

MRS. I. L. FOSTER.

GREETINGS FROM THE PRESIDENT

To the Students of the University of Maryland,

Greeting and welcome to the old and the new students. We are glad to start a new year, and we are determined as always to make it as successful as possible. We are especially glad to see new students and we want to get acquainted with them and help them.

Our students come from homes that are representative of all the important activities of the State. They come from wealthy homes and from humble homes, and most of them from average homes.

We want to emphasize on our campus the finest principles that prevail in Maryland's homes. Here any young man or woman is judged by what he or she is, rather than by the place from which he or she comes. Those who make a real effort to get ahead in their studies and who prove themselves to be good friends and companions are the ones who in the end will derive the greatest benefit from the University life. It is a privilege to be admitted to a university, and a very high privilege to make a valuable contribution to the university life.

Some new students need to be warned of the importance of keeping their work up to date. The most common cause of failure in college is letting the work get behind and thinking that it can be made up later. The later days always bring tasks enough of their own.

I am speaking for all of the members of our staff and for most of the older students when I say that we truly want to help the new students in every way we can. And this offer of assistance is extended also in behalf of the pastors of the local churches and officers of the several religious associations.

Sincerely yours,

R. A. PEARSON,
President.

DR. RAYMOND PEARSON
President of the University of Maryland

GREETINGS FROM THE DEAN OF WOMEN

A warm and cordial welcome to all, both new and old. We are indeed glad to welcome you to our campus and to our University. We hope the years spent here will be rich and fruitful.

In order to get the most out of your college career you should take part in some extra-curricular activities. However, do not rush headlong into too many—choose wisely. Four years of a well-rounded college life is an asset not to be regarded lightly and gives you a preparation for life which is not to be gotten in any other way.

Happy days are in store for you here, ones which will be ever cherished in your memory. Live them to the utmost.

Sincerely yours,

ADELE H. STAMP,

Dean of Women.

GREETINGS FROM THE GENERAL SECRETARY

To Each Member of the Class of '36—
Greetings!

You are fortunate indeed to be in college in a time when so many thousands who would like to go cannot do so. A needy world looks to you for help and leadership. Your special opportunity carries with it great responsibilities, as well as unusual privileges.

Myriad voices will call you to lose yourself in the whirl of social activities, to adopt the standard of getting by, to worship grades and honors, to accept the current ideals. But deep within the truer voice will call you to really be, to grow, to make life count.

Maryland needs not your blind, unthinking acceptance of her customs and standards. She needs your keenest insight into values, your deepest loyalty to truth, your most courageous daring. She asks your allegiance to all that is best in her traditions, and your cooperation in building a better Maryland, and a better world.

The Christian Association, and all of its members, stand ready to help you, and invite you to join with them in the search for the highest values in living.

I hope you will call upon me, personally, whenever I can be of help in any way.

Sincerely,

Your friend,

VIRGIL E. LOWDER.

MARYLAND CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. at the University of Maryland are voluntary fellowships of men and women, both student and faculty, who unite in the endeavor to find the highest values in living and to make them effective in daily life.

The Y. M. and Y. W. combined in the Fall of 1930 to form the Maryland Christian Association. Each group has its own organization and its own specific program, but both unite in the M. C. A. to achieve closer fellowship and cooperation, and to promote an all-campus program to meet student and faculty needs.

Each year the new cabinets work out their own statement of purpose and their goals for the year, making a direct effort to meet the specific needs of the campus.

Membership

Every student and faculty member who is in sympathy with the purpose of the Association is invited to join, and to unite with the other members in the search for individual and corporate life at its best. The voting membership consists of those who sign the statement of purpose, thus voluntarily declaring their desire and intention of seeking, in close cooperation with all other members, the best possible life. For many in this fellowship the way is most clearly pointed by the life of Jesus.

The affiliate membership is composed of those who take part in any way in the activities of the association. The program is designed to include and to serve all persons in the campus community, and all are invited to participate in such phases of it as they desire.

Student Control

The plans and program are determined and promoted by the two Cabinets, with the advice and aid of the M. C. A. Student Council, which is a larger body, including representatives of each fraternity and sorority and all other living groups on the campus. The Council members are elected by their respective groups. Meetings are held monthly.

In all of their work the Cabinets and Council have the advice and help of the General Secretary.

The General Secretary

Mr. Virgil E. Lowder, the General Secretary, came to Maryland from Yale University in 1930. He is well qualified for his position. In addition to the A.B. degree, in which he received honors, he has had more than two years of graduate study at Yale and Columbia Universities, and has spent considerable time in religious and educational work. Mr. Lowder is also interested in athletics, and was for two years coach of basketball, baseball, and tennis, and then Director of Athletics at one of the oldest preparatory schools in New England. Under his leadership religious work is moving ahead rapidly at Maryland.

Men's Student Cabinet

The Y. M. C. A. Cabinet—the Men's Student Cabinet of the M. C. A.—for 1932-33 is composed of the following members:

This Board was organized at the request of the Student Cabinets, and advises on the policies and activities of the Association.

The 1932-33 Board is composed of the following members:

PROGRAM OF THE M. C. A. Freshman Camp

One of the most significant phases of the Christian Association work is its service to Freshmen. This year the Freshman program is being inaugurated by a pre-school camp for Freshman men, to be held at Camp Letts, the fine camp of the Washington Y. M. C. A. on Rhodes River, September 17-20. Prominent student and faculty leaders will be present to help acquaint the Freshmen with some of the opportunities and responsibilities they will face in college life. It is expected that the Camp will be one of the most helpful and delightful features of the Freshman orientation program. In the informal atmosphere of camp life many fine friendships will be made, and problems thought through before the Freshman finds himself immersed in campus life. Edward F. Quinn, '34, is Director of the 1932 Camp.

Freshman Commissions

One of the highest honors that can come to a Freshman at Maryland is to be chosen a member of the Men's or Women's Freshman Commission. Commission Members are chosen from a list of Freshmen nominated by members of the M. C. A. Cabinets or upperclass friends. The Commissions meet regularly for fellowship and discussion, have occasional social functions, and especially endeavor to be of every possible service to the entire Freshman class. Prominent members of the faculty address the group and lead in discussion from time to time. Freshman Commission members are permitted to wear the special Commission Key. An upperclassman, elected by the Cabinet, acts as Advisor to each Commission.

Freshman Week Program

All possible assistance is given to the new students during their early days at school. Cooperating with the Freshman Week Committee of the faculty, members of the M. C. A. Cabinets conduct information desks in the lobbies of the main buildings, help the new students to locate their rooms, and perform many types of service. The "M" Book, or Freshman Handbook, is distributed free from the office of the General Secretary during Freshman week. Each Freshman is entitled to one copy, a gift from the M. C. A., if called for during the first week of school.

Student Sunday

The first Sunday at Maryland is "Student Sunday," when nearby churches cooperate in giving a special welcome to students, new and old. Cars, furnished by members of the various churches, are on hand at the M. C. A. Headquarters at 10:30 A. M. to transport students to and from the church of their choice, and many of the new students are entertained at dinner in the home of church members. In the afternoon members of the various churches are hosts to new students on an automobile tour of interesting points in Washington, leaving the M. C. A. Headquarters at 2:15, and returning in time for supper and the University Vesper Service in the evening.

Freshman Discussion Groups

All Freshmen are invited to attend the Freshman Discussion Groups, led by prominent upperclassmen and faculty members, where many questions of interest to students are discussed. Beginning the first week of school, these groups meet once each week for four weeks. They are a great aid in helping one to think through to intelligent standards and attitudes on important phases of life.

Student Center

The University is this year making available for student activities a portion of the old Horticultural Building, situated near the University Library and the men's dormitories. This will be known as the Student Center, and will house the Christian Association offices and meeting rooms, Student Pastors, and the offices of various student organizations. A large recreation and reading room will be open to students at all hours during the day, and an excellent assortment of books and magazines will be available.

The Student Center will be made especially available to Day Students at the luncheon hour and all Day Students are invited to make their headquarters in this building. An attractive room has been set aside for women students.

The rooms of the Student Center are used for meetings of the various campus organizations in the evenings.

Speakers

One important phase of the M. C. A. work is the bringing of outstanding speakers and leaders to the campus. Some of these address assemblies of the student body, while others speak to smaller groups or lead in discussion. The splendid program of speakers which has been arranged for 1932-33 promises to be better even than those of former years.

Vesper Services

The M. C. A. cooperates with the Religious Work Council in holding a Vesper Service in the University Auditorium, Agricultural Building, each Sunday evening from 6:30 to 7:30. These services are non-denominational in character, and are addressed by notable ministers and professional and business men. The 1931-32 program brought many of the most distinguished speakers and leaders from Washington and Baltimore, and the surrounding country. Music was furnished by the University Department of Music and by the choirs of nearby churches. The programs have been exceptionally fine ones.

Wednesday Evening Meetings

The Wednesday Evening Meetings held in the M. C. A. Headquarters from 6:30 to 7:30, give an opportunity for the expression of student and faculty thought, and for the sharing of viewpoints with others. The programs are varied. Occasionally an outside speaker is invited when it is felt that he has something to say on an important question. However, the meetings are primarily planned by the student committee as a place for the expression of student and faculty thought. The committee endeavors to allow for the fullest possible participation by all who care to take part.

Life Experiment Group

One of the most interesting meetings of the week is the Life Experiment Group, which is held in the M. C. A. Headquarters each Sunday morning from 9:30 to 10:30. The members of the group share experiences of the week, and evaluate them by the standards of Jesus. Time is taken for definite and practical study of the Bible, and for experience in creative worship.

Conferences

One of the most popular features of the M. C. A. work is the conference program. Occasional conferences are held on the local campus, with delegates from other colleges in attendance. Large delegations go from Maryland to conferences at other schools. The more important of the regular conferences held during the year are Fall, Mid-Winter, and Spring Tri-State Conferences, which include students from the colleges of Maryland, Delaware, and the District of Columbia; the popular Buck Hill Falls Conference for men, held at the well known resort in the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania the first week-end in February; and the Men's and Women's summer conferences, held at Camp Talcott, N. Y. and Camp Whelen, N. J., soon after the close of school in June. All students and faculty members are eligible to attend these conferences.

Fireside Forums

The Committee on Fireside Forums plans this year to prepare and make available to the fraternities a list of faculty members who have signified their willingness to speak and to lead in informal discussion, and the subjects upon which they are willing to lead. Fraternities who wish to do so can invite these men in for a brief talk and for informal discussion on subjects in which they are interested.

Social Events

The Social Committee plans various social events for the year, the majority of them of necessity being for relatively smaller groups. Perhaps the most colorful and entertaining event of the year is the Maryland Mixer, held annually for the entire student body soon after the opening of school in the fall. Here frolic and fun are rife. The 1932 committee is planning for the best one ever.

Finances

The work of the Christian Association at Maryland is financed entirely by the voluntary contributions of those who are interested. Once each year an invitation is extended to each student and faculty member to give some support to the work. This comes at the time of the annual Budget Campaign, held early in November. A large proportion of the students and faculty respond.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. at the University of Maryland, while cooperating heartily with the men as an integral part of the M. C. A., yet has its own distinct organization and membership, and a program planned especially for the women students of the university.

The program is planned by the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, with the counsel of the General Secretary of the M. C. A., and the advice and aid of the Y. W. C. A. sponsors, an unofficial group composed of wives of faculty members and interested friends.

The Cabinet for the year 1932-33 is composed of the following:

Helen Farrington, '33, President
Irene Knox, '34, Vice-President
Doris Lanahan, '33, Secretary-Treasurer
Catherine Crawford, '33, Advisor
Gertrude Nicholls, '34, Field Council Representative
Winifred J. Clark, '33

Membership

All women students and members of the faculty are invited to become members of the Y. W. C. A. There are no dues. Those who are in sympathy with the purpose of the Association and wish to join in its activities and fellowship may do so by giving their allegiance to the statement of purpose, and upon being received into the Y. W. C. A. become voting members. All women students are invited to participate in the various activities of the Y. W., with the exception of voting, whether or not they wish to become members.

Meetings

Besides the meetings of the Cabinet, the Y. W. C. A. holds regular bi-weekly meetings for all women of the university. A splendid series of programs is being planned for these meetings during 1932-33, with occasional speakers, and other attractive and unusual features.

Freshman Work

The Y. W. C. A. sponsors the Big Sister Movement, under which each Freshman girl is given a Big Sister, who assists her in every possible way during the first term, and particularly during the first days at school. The Big and Little Sister Reception is held on Friday evening of the first week. Other phases of the Y. W. Freshman work include the important Freshman Commission, composed of twenty-five girls chosen from those nominated by the Cabinet or other friends, the Freshman Discussion Groups, and services performed during Freshman week.

Miscellaneous

Many other phases of the Y. W. work have been spoken of under the heading of the M. C. A., and are entered into jointly with the men.

STUDENT PASTORS

Most of the major religious denominations at Maryland have Student Pastors who minister especially to the students of their denomination. The Student Pastors have an office in the Student Center, where each has his office hours during the week. The Baptist, Episcopalian, Presbyterian, and Lutheran students have denominational clubs which meet regularly during the year.

ADMINISTRATION

LIBRARY AND ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

1807—1856—1920, dates on the seal of the University of Maryland, are imbued with a story of progress that reads almost like a romance.

In 1807 the College of Medicine, fifth oldest in the country, and the progenitor of the University of Maryland, was chartered, and its beginning marked a great step, not only in the history of the State, but one well in keeping with the vast progress of the nation in education. This charter of the College of Medicine of Baltimore was changed in 1812 to become the University of Maryland.

1856 marked the chartering of the Maryland Agricultural College at College Park, second Agricultural College of the Western Hemisphere. This small college, though still in its early stages of existence, was one of the few to keep open in those precarious days of the Civil War, when the State of Maryland was torn by conflicting armies.

In 1920, by Act of Legislature of the State of Maryland, the present University of Maryland was formed by the merging of the Maryland State College at College Park and the University of Maryland at Baltimore, forming the strong institution now known.

Many changes took place between the dates mentioned, one being the empowerment conferred by the State to the School of Medicine to "annex other departments" and become the University of Maryland. The Dental College, then the first in the world, was added.

In 1862, by Act of Congress, the Agricultural College was partially taken over by the State and named beneficiary of the Land Grant Act. It was entirely taken over by the State in 1914, and in 1916 granted a charter as the Maryland State College.

THE COLLEGE PARK BRANCH

The College Park Branch of the University is made up of the five colleges: Agriculture, Arts and Sciences, Education, Engineering, Home Economics, the Graduate School, and Summer School.

Maryland's Agricultural College is the second oldest in the Western Hemisphere, and there are to be found there some of the original experimental plots, started, in 1888 still being farmed.

The last ten years have seen an almost amazing advancement in this branch of the University. With a campus seriously handicapped by the burning of its most important buildings, and with only a few inadequate structures to care for the students a decade ago, a new university has grown in place of the old.

With the advent of co-education in 1920, new arrangements were made to care for the girls, until today there are Gerneaux Hall, a new Dormitory, a Field House, a refurnished Home Economics Building, and a Practice House for Home Economics. For the men: Sylvester Hall, Ritchie Gymnasium. Other buildings added in the past ten years include the Stadium, Field House, Dairy Building, Addition to the Engineering Building, Horticultural Building, Library, Chemistry Building, Dining Hall, and Central Heating Plant.

Steadily increasing with the growth of the facilities, the student body has well doubled itself. With a total of 300 students in 1915 the count has grown to well beyond the 1700 mark for last year.

THE BALTIMORE BRANCH

The Baltimore branch of the University is composed of the Schools of Medicine, Dentistry, Pharmacy, and Law, all of which are to be found in the vicinity of Lombard and Greene Streets in Baltimore.

Of unusual interest is the Medical School building, erected in 1814, which is the oldest Medical School building in the country still in use. Other buildings in this group are the University Hospital, the Law School building, and the new Dental and Pharmacy building.

In Baltimore the enrollment is close to 1600, and several hundred pre-medical, pre-dental, and pre-law students are enrolled at College Park. This, including Summer School, makes a total of nearly four thousand students attending the University of Maryland.

The School of Medicine of the University of Maryland is one of the oldest foundations for medical education in America, ranking fifth in point of age among the medical colleges of the United States. In the school building at Lombard and Greene streets in Baltimore was founded one of the first medical libraries and the first medical college library in America.

Here for the first time in America, dissecting was made a compulsory part of the curriculum; here instruction in Dentistry was first given (1837), and here was first installed independent chairs for the teaching of diseases of women and children (1867), and of eye and ear diseases (1873).

The Baltimore College of Dental Surgery was chartered by the Maryland Legislature February 1, 1840. It was the first institution ever organized to offer instruction in the art and science of dentistry. It has continued with an unbroken record and remains the oldest dental school in the world.

PARKING REGULATIONS

The Automobile Parking Regulations are for the purpose of protecting the appearance of our campus as well as for personal safety and convenience. These regulations, which have been in operation for the past year, have been found very beneficial to our campus. The following are the regulations proposed by the Campus Parking Committee and approved by the Administration:

REGULATION OF STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Association of students in organized bodies, for the purpose of carrying on voluntary student activities in orderly and productive ways, is under the supervision of the Committee on Student activities, except that those bodies which are controlled by a special board or faculty committee are under the supervision of the Committee on Student Affairs, subject to the approval of the President. Such groups are formed only with the consent of the Committee on Student Affairs and the approval of the President. Without such consent and approval, no student organization which in any way represents the University before the public, or which purports to be a University organization or organization of University students, may use the name of the University in connection with its own name, or in connection with its members as students.

Eligibility to Represent the University

Only students in good standing are eligible to represent the University in extra-curricular contests. No student while on probation may represent the University in such events as athletic contests, glee club concerts, dramatic performances, and debates.

Discipline

In the government of the University, the President and faculty rely chiefly upon the sense of responsibility of the students. The student who pursues his studies diligently, attends classes regularly, lives honorably, and maintains good behavior, meets this responsibility. In the interest of the general welfare of the University, those who fail to maintain these standards are eliminated. Students are under the direct supervision of the University only when on the campus, but they are responsible to the University for their conduct wherever they may be.

HANDLING OF FINANCES OF STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

In the spring of 1930, the Student Government Association passed a resolution to charge each student a general activities fee of ten dollars ($10.00) per year, which fee included payment of his class dues and subscription to The Diamondback, The Old Line, and The Reveille. In 1931 the Opera Club, the Student Band, and the Footlight Club were added to this group, and each student receives in return tickets to two performances of the Footlight Club and one performance of the Opera Club.

The money received is prorated among the aforementioned organizations, according to a percentage schedule arranged by the Student Government Association. The accounts of these organizations and all of the general student organizations, such as the Maryland Christian Association and The Rossbourg Club, are grouped in one account and are under the supervision of a Faculty Adviser. At the beginning of each school year, each organization submits a budget for approval, and then writes an order for each expenditure to be made. This is checked against the budget items and, if sufficient funds are available, is approved by the Faculty Adviser. Various firms with which the students deal have been notified that the Student Government Association is not responsible for any contracted debts for which an order has not been issued. Any student or individual contracting debts without an order is personally responsible.

Records, which are always open for inspection, are kept at the Central Office for each organization. Besides, each organization treasurer keeps his own set of books, which serves as a check upon the Central Office. The bills are vouchered, and the accounts are audited by the State Auditor at the end of the year.

In the first issue of The Diamonback of the school year, a full statement is issued of all accounts handled by the Central Office during the previous year. A check, which eliminates a great deal of misunderstanding, is also maintained for the students upon the sale of tickets for such functions as those held by Footlight Club, the Opera Club, and the Rossbourg Club.

FRESHMEN

TIPS TO FRESHMEN

This advice, based on our own experience, is listed here with the hope that it may give the members of the class of '36 some practical guides for proper adjustment to university life:

You can make Maryland an intellectual institution as much or as little as you wish, but your curriculum will not do it for you. Get used to thinking, and make friends who think; you'll be glad to know how in later life.

Do your class work and assignments thoroughly; the more you put into them, the more you will get out of them.

Don't, however, let your brain become mechanical and your body decay, but refresh your mind and body daily with social recreation and outdoor exercise. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" holds for Jack or any one, man or woman.

Your parents expect you to use judgement and foresight. Show yourself worthy of the responsibility in everything, including financial matters. Remember that your education involves a sacrifice from somebody.

If you are living away from home, set aside a definite time each week to write home; then write, even if you don't need money.

Do not just follow the mob, but do what you believe to be right, even if it involves loss of favor in the eyes of the crowd.

Don't live under the delusion that cigarettes, profanity, and drinking make the true college man.

Finally, come to the M. C. A. headquarters and let us help you. We want to share your problems.

FRATERNITIES

Maryland has a number of excellent national and local social fraternities. Both advantages and disadvantages may come to one as a member of one of these groups. Some of the advantages pointed out are:

May find oneself in a group of congenial friends.

Satisfaction of being wanted.

Sense of attainment at having a group place their stamp of approval upon one.

Increased social opportunities.

May make more friends.

May be stimulated to study harder.

Values in living in close relationship with others.

May help in securing offices.

May help in obtaining jobs.

Fellowship and friendships with men in chapters in other colleges., etc.

Some of the disadvantages pointed out are:

May be too expensive.

Fraternity Jewelry and Stationery

MARYLAND RINGS

by Balfour

BLACK & GOLD SHOP

Representatives

May occupy too much of one's time.

Required attendance at meetings, and fines may prevent doing more important things.

Fraternity competition may raise barriers between self and others, and narrow one's friendships.

May find a tendency to be thought of less as an individual and more as a member of a certain group.

May find pressure to put "brothers" ahead of others who may be better for the job, thus betraying all who are not in one's group.

May find tendency to place the interest of the fraternity ahead of larger groups, such as class, school, etc.

The ideals of the fraternity may prove different from one's own.

The first question for one to face is whether or not he cares to join a fraternity, if invited. If he does not, then he may turn his mind to other matters. If he does wish to join, then certainly he should not decide too hastily, or accept the first fraternity that gives him a bid. Fraternities are eager to secure men. It is better to wait than to make a mistake.

When one joins a fraternity it should not be with the idea that the group is perfect, or that this is the best and only fraternity in the world. Every social fraternity has its good chapters and its poor ones, and one should enter with the intention of raising the standards of his own.

TRADITIONS

Maryland still retains a few of its old freshman traditions, which freshmen formerly were compelled by physical force to observe. This use of force constituted hazing. Now, however, hazing has been abolished by a clause in the by-laws of the Student Government Association definitely forbidding the use of force.

These remaining traditions were selected as the best of the many to which first year students have been held in the past. All of them have good features, but the custom of greeting those one meets on the campus deserves special recommendation. The "hello habit" will do much to make you feel at home and to make friends for you. You will frequently find that an exchange of greetings serves as an introduction which leads to a fine friendship.

The traditions which have been kept, and regulations for freshman class organization and activity, are listed in article V of the Student Government by-laws. You will do well to familiarize yourself with this article.

WOMEN'S TRADITIONS

In order that the freshman girls may become acquainted with and perpetuate certain traditions, the following list is given:

1. It is the wish of the women of the University of Maryland to help their incoming classmates to become acclimated to college life. For this purpose each one of the new students is adopted by an upper classman as a "little sister." When she arrives on the campus, she is greeted by her "big sister," who is ready to advise her about "the ropes." Little sisters are assigned by the Y. W. C. A.

2. The incoming Freshman Class is expected to obey the "rabbit rules" made by the Sophomore Class through the Sophomore Committee on Freshman Regulations.

3. Women who excel in scholarship, leadership, citizenship and Christian character are eligible for the Women's Senior Honor Society in their senior year. On Baccalaureate Sunday the outgoing Women's Senior Honor Society selects the new organization from the Junior Class.

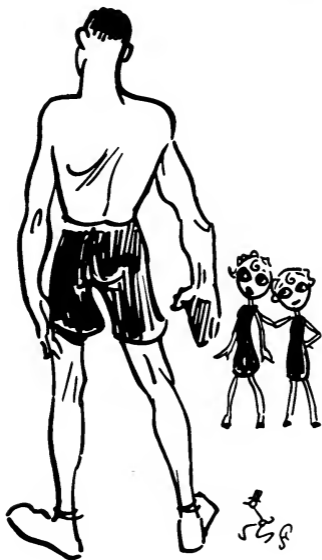

4. Each year the Junior Class holds May Day celebration in honor of the Senior Class, out of which they select by ballot the Queen of the May and her four maids.

5. On Class Day it has become traditional for the senior girls to have a ceremony, marching around a blazing bonfire and throwing in their old books.

6. The Women's Student Government Association sends each year a delegate to the National Convention.

7. The Woman's Executive Council holds an annual picnic at the end of the year.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

President.....	Louise Hersperger
Vice-President.....	Florence Peter
Secretary-Treasurer.....	Kathleen Hannigan
Recorder of Points.....	Josephine Knox

The Women's Athletic Association was organized in the fall of 1924 by a small group of girls who realized the need of an association to sponsor and supervise women's athletics at the University of Maryland. The purpose of this organization when founded was to supervise girls' athletics, to promote more and better sports, to encourage good sportsmanship, and to provide an incentive for participation in sports by presenting letters to individuals and trophies to winning teams.

Last year the W. A. A. made three outstanding achievements. The first was the introduction of a major department of physical education. As the number of co-eds increased, the need for more extensive physical education curricula was evinced. Under the capable supervision of the new director of physical education for women, Miss Phillips, courses have been designed to meet these needs.

The second achievement was the completion and occupation of the new girls' field house. Because of inadequate facilities, the progress in athletics has been retarded for several years. This modernly equipped building serves as a center for the activities of the Women's Athletic Association.

The third high point of the year was gained when the women's rifle team brought to Maryland both the national rifle championship and the individual intercollegiate championship.

During each year, the regular program of major and minor sports has been followed. Each sport is climaxed by the usual interclass matches.

The activities of the Women's Athletic Association are concluded each year by a banquet at which awards are distributed to those who have earned them.

SONGS AND YELLS

ALMA MATER

(Maryland! My Maryland!)

Thy sons and daughters throng thy door,
Maryland! My Maryland!
Maryland! oh Maryland!
Their hearts and hopes they bring to thee,
And place them in thy custody,
Proud hearts that pledge their love for thee:—
They come from mountain, farm and shore
Maryland University!

Go forth, brave youth, throughout the state:
Maryland! My Maryland!
And by your actions, show her great:
Maryland! Our Maryland!
Thy Alma Mater's name and fame,
Oh keep alive her holy flame,
Until all hearts as one exclaim,
Maryland! My Maryland!

Cheer, three times cheer, and one cheer more
For Maryland! Dear Maryland!
Send forth that cry from hill to shore:—
Maryland University!
Fair Mother of our brightest dreams,
Blest giver of life's precious things,
To thee each heart its service brings:—
Maryland! My Maryland!

MY MARYLAND

The despot's heel is on thy shore,
Maryland! My Maryland!
His torch is at thy temple door,
Maryland! My Maryland!
Avenge the patriotic gore,
That flecked the streets of Baltimore,
And be the battle queen of yore,
Maryland! My Maryland!

Thou wilt not cower in the dust,
Maryland! My Maryland!
Thy gleaming sword shall never rust,
Maryland! My Maryland!
Remember Carroll's sacred trust,
Remember Howard's war-like thrust,
And all the slumb'ers with the just,
Maryland! My Maryland!

Maryland

In the very heart of Maryland,
In the heart of every Maryland man,
There's a spirit so endearing
It will win your heart and hand.
For she doth hold sway,
She will win the day,
And her glorious men will ever win the fray.

Chorus

Then it's Hurrah! Hurrah! for Maryland.
Then's it Hurrah! Hurrah for U. of M.
With her banners ever streaming high,
She will always win or die,
Never forget the glories of the past,
Carry on triumphant to the last,
For we love, we love Old Maryland,
Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah!

Victory Song

Down on the field they're fighting,
Pride of the Black and Gold,
Men, every one of them,
Warriors of U. of M.
Our honor they'll uphold,
On toward the goal they're marching.
It will not take them long,
So, let's give a cheer,
For the men we hold dear.
And sing to them our Victory Song.

Chorus

Maryland, we're all behind you;
Wave high the Black and Gold,
For there is nothing half so glorious
As to see our men victorious;
We's got the team, boys,
We've got the steam, boys,
So keep on fighting, don't give in!
(Shout) M-A-R-Y-L-A-N-D!
(Sing) Maryland will win!

(Tune, Caisson Song)

Keep the ball away from them,
Keep that pigskin a-rolling along!
Up the field, down the field,
Not an inch of ground we'll yield,
Keep that pigskin a-rolling along!
Then it's Whiff! Wham! Whack!
Hear that Maryland quarterback
Shout out his signals loud and strong!
Where'er you go, you will always know
That the pigskin is rolling along,
(Shouted) Maryland! Maryland!
Keep that pigskin a-rolling along!

Sons of Maryland

(Tune, Sons of America)

Sons of the Gold,
Sons of the Black,
Fight, No spirit lack.
Your Alma Mater
Needs you today.
To help win the fray.
Shoulder to shoulder,
Back to back,
We'll fight together
For the Gold and Black.
Fair Sons and Daughters
Of Maryland,
Upon you all vict'ries stand.

Chorus

Sons of Maryland,
Old Maryland needs you!
Stand by your colors, boys,
And to them e'er be true!
Fight for old Maryland,
Old Liners! Stand.
Defenders of the Black and Gold
Throughout this land.
Team! Team! Team!

Here's to Old U. of M.

Here's to old U. of M.
We're out to win again,
Come, give a rousing cheer,
And press on to Victory,
For we're out to win this fray,
We'll show ————— how to play,
For our boys will fight to the end

All Hail! to Our Maryland

Let us sing to Alma Mater

University of Maryland,

Let us deck her o'er with glory,

With triumph and honor, hand in hand:

University of Maryland,

The college so dear to our hearts,

We'll cheer for the teams which are all so great,

Its praises ring, from State to State;

Along the well-worn trail of victory

Maryland will follow on and on,

And the colors in the lead,

Will be Black and Gold, indeed,

All Hail! to Our Maryland.
